13. Chart Example
14. Horizontal Type #4: Broken Old Lows as Resistance
15. Chart Example
16. Horizontal Type #5: Pivots
17. Chart Example
18. The Basic Idea: Horizontal Support/Resistance Into Diagonal Trendline Break
19. Chart Example

8) USING TREND LINES AND CHANNELS IN COMBINATION WITH FIBONACCI RETRACEMENTS

1. Module 8 Title Page
2. Module 8 Objectives
3. Note on Fibonacci

Trendline Mastery: Course Outline

4. Step 1: Draw The Trend Channel
5. Chart Example
6. Step 2: Identify Swing Points Within The Channel
7. Chart Example
8. Step 3: Draw Fibonacci Retracements & Extensions
9. Chart Example
10. Step 4: Draw The Corrective Trendline
11. Chart Example
12. Step 5: Assess Profit Targets On Fibo Extensions & Channel Targets
13. Chart Example
14. Step 6: Confirm the Retracement Trendline Break
15. Chart Example
16. Step 7: Look for a Trade Entry Trigger In The Trending Direction
17. Chart Example

9) SPECIAL APPLICATION #1: USING TRENDLINE BREAK ENTRY TRIGGERS

1. Module 9 Title Page
2. Module 9 Objectives
3. Step 1: Find A Tradable Trend Bias
4. Chart Example
5. Step 2: Find A Counter-Trend Rejection Wick
6. Chart Example
7. Step 3: Drill Down To The Next Lower Timeframe
8. Chart Example
9. Step 4: Draw The Corrective Trendline On The Lower Timeframe
10. Chart Example
11. Step 5: Confirm The Trendline Break
12. Chart Example
13. Step 6: Enter The Trade And Apply The Initial Protective Stop
14. Chart Example

10) SPECIAL APPLICATION #2: USING TRENDLINE TAKE-PROFIT TARGETS

1. Module 10 Title Page
2. Module 10 Objectives
3. Trendline-based Price Projections: An Introduction
4. The Tom Demark Price Projection Method
5. Chart Example
